Cybertrust Massachusetts — 2023 Consortium Highlights

In just its first year, the CyberTrust consortium has grown to 8 higher ed institution members, representing a large and growing source of future cyber workers.

BAY PATH UNIVERSITY
BRIDGEWATER STATE UNIVERSITY
Cambridge College
ELMS COLLEGE
Franklin Cummings Tech
PER SCHOLAS
MASSBAY COMMUNITY COLLEGE
STCC Springfield Technical Community College

STUDENT PATHWAYS

Students enrolled in cyber-adjacent programs
678

Students enrolled in cyber programs
571

Students enrolled in accelerated workforce development programs
59

CyberTrust member school cyber programs serve a student demographic that is more diverse than the cyber industry today.

7% Asian   17% Black   26% Hispanic   39% White

CyberTrust member school cyber programs are creating career opportunities for students from economically disadvantaged households

APPROVED

49% Percentage of students who are Pell Grant eligible

The Cyber Range offered to member schools has already reached a large number of students with hands-on engagement on a wide range of cyber topics.

391 Students served in classrooms, competitions and other activities

---

Additional performance data is available upon request.

cybertrustmass.org